

Severall
Friends
EARLY MUSIC IN THE HIGH DESERT present...

The Lascivious Low Road

Currying favor in Medieval France

Lusty music with dazzling images from the fourteenth century epic

◆ Le Roman de Fauvel ◆

a timeless and biting satire of political influence, utter incompetence, and toadies galore.

Drew Minter, voice & harp
Shira Kammen, Medieval fiddle
Mark Rimple, citole & gittern

Tracy Cowart, harp & voice
Mary Springfels, citole & vielle Spiff Wiegand, hurdy-gurdy & percussion

Admission $20 at the door, or purchase tickets at SeverallFriends.org; students free with ID.

Saturday, June 1, 7:30 pm: San Miguel Chapel, 401 Old Santa Fe Trail, Santa Fe
Sunday, June 2, 3:00 pm: Unitarian Church of Los Alamos, 1738 N. Sage St., Los Alamos

Open rehearsal Friday, May 31, 3:00 pm: Unitarian Universalists of Santa Fe, 107 W. Barcelona Rd., Santa Fe; $10 donation requested.