For Ye Violls

2023

An intensive weekend workshop for viol players at all levels in Albuquerque NM, March 23 – 26, 2023.

For Ye Violls 2023 will be an intimate four-day weekend for viol players at all levels featuring five-and six part consort music from England, Flanders, and Italy. The workshop's three instructors—Wendy Gillespie, Larry Lipnik, and Mary Springfels—are among the most outstanding coaches in the field. Each tutor has chosen a repertoire. There will be six formal sessions, plus a final reading and faculty concert. There will be free time each afternoon for an extra drop-in class, siesta, or sightseeing.

Mary Springfels

Flemish masters: From Josquin des Prez to Giaches deWert.

Wendy Gillespie

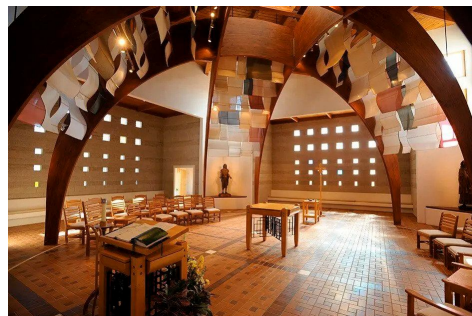

Have you driven a Ward lately?
Consort music of Jacobean composer John Ward.

Larry Lipnik

A lieta vita: Giovanni Gastoldi,
Thomas Morley, and the anglicization of the Italian madrigal.

The workshop venue is the Norbertine Retreat Center in Albuquerque, NM. This pastoral site, just minutes from Albuquerque Airport (ABQ), features modern amenities with comfortable rooms, most with private baths.

GETTING HERE:

The Norbertine Abbey is located on the southwest side of Albuquerque, on the west side of the Rio Grande and only 15-20 minutes from Albuquerque Airport (ABQ). We assume most people will be driving, and if so just pop the address—5825 Coors Blvd. SW into your GPS—but the airport is very convenient if you're not. We should be able to do pick-ups if you arrive when we're able to come get you and you let us know your itinerary. If you do fly, you should be able to easily make any return flight Sunday after 2:30 pm.

Please print and return the registration form (registration page only) with a non-refundable deposit of $100.
